ONE DRIVER HELD
FOR RECKLESSNESS

Ray Haney's Condition Is Reported Serious, May Not Recover.

Ray Haney, 22, an employee of the Wright Machine Co., Lisbon, is in the Central Clinic hospital with a fractured skull and a punctured eardrum, and lacerations on his body and face as the result of an auto collision on the Lisbon-Lectonia rd. at 2 p. m. Sunday.

Three other persons were injured, though not seriously, while a fourth person, the driver of a car that ran into the one driven by Haney is held under $1,000 bond in Lisbon for reckless driving.

Monday morning hospital attaches stated that Haney's condition was serious, and that he did not have a good chance to recover. His condition has not changed since he was brought to the hospital in a Lisbon ambulance accompanied by a Lisbon physician.

Haney was occupied by Walter Redfoot, Leontine, Virginia La Belle, Lisbon, and Dorothy Brown, Lisbon. Redfoot sustained severe lacerations about his head and arms, Miss La Belle was bruised and cut, while Miss Brown was bruised and cut and had one arm slightly injured.

Duane Moore, 312 18th st., Wellsville, driver of the car that crashed into Haney's machine, was arrested by Marshal Lewton of Lisbon, and is held under $1,000 bond to await the outcome of Haney's injuries, and until an investigation can be made.

The other three occupants of the wrecked machine returned to their homes after their injuries were dressed at the Central Clinic where they were brought with Haney. Moore escaped injury.

Hits Lighter Car
Moore was by himself at the time of the accident and, according to witnesses, was driving south at a high rate of speed. In the car with Haney were Redfoot and two girls, all en route to Haney's home in Leontine.

The car driven by Haney, it is alleged, by Lisbon officials, had slowed up at the street car crossing to let a Lisbon street car pass. On crossing the track, Haney is said to have continued slowly in order to pass Moore, who was approaching a curve from the opposite direction.

The heavy car, driven by Moore, hit the lighter machine near the center, turning it over and hurling the occupants out. The small car was completely wrecked and was towed to a Lisbon garage.

Three suffered minor bruises and cuts in an accident on the East Palestine-Darlington rd. late Saturday night, when their touring car turned over on a dangerous curve a mile east of the state line, demolishing the auto.

The car, according to the driver, became uncontrollable on the hill, striking the concrete work of a culvert, and rolling down the slight incline.

Although none of the men were seriously injured, they all had cuts and bruises.

The car was taken to East Palestine.

DEBATING TEAMS
DEFEATED AGAIN

Negatives Lose To Warren
Affirmatives To The Carrollton Team.

Salem High's two debating teams sustained two more defeats Saturday night, the negative team being on the short end of a two to one decision at Warren, while the affirmative team lost to Carrollton by a two to one decision.

The question debated was the same as heard here Saturday night. It was, "Resolved, that the United States should enter the world court as proposed by the late President Harding."

At Warren High the negative team composed of Edward Heck, Ralph Kircher, Cecilia Shriver and Joe Marshall attempted to tear down the Warren team's affirmative arguments, but sustained a defeat for the second straight night on the question.

The affirmative team, composed of Will Mae Cole, Neil Grisco, Helen Flick and Helen Beitzel believed they had easily won the decision until the judges announced their choice. The crowd in the Carrollton hall, hoisted and cheered the decision in favor of their home team, but the Salem team succeeded in quieting the audience.

FIVE INJURED
IN EXPLOSION

Three Buildings Demolished, Score Of Homes
Damaged By Explosion In Wellsville
Sunday; Two Men Arrested.

Wellsville, March 10.—Five persons were injured, three buildings were demolished, three partially wrecked and nearly a score of homes damaged shortly after 4 o'clock Sunday morning when the general store operated by Charles Preziza, Twelfth st and Anderson ave. was swept from its foundations by a blast of high explosive the force of which was felt throughout the city. The loss is roughly estimated at approximately $25,000.

The injured
Mike Buccioli—In the East Liverpool City hospital; bones in both feet thought to have been fractured.
James Galia—Cuts about the head.
Lucy Galia—Cuts and bruises on her arms.

Nesta Liberatore—Cut by glass.

John Gray—Burns about his head and face.

Charles Preziza, who was accompanied by Chief of Police John Fultz and Mayor James S. Barnes in Wellsville, W. Va., at 9 o'clock Sunday morning, and Damiano Preziza, a son, who was at the Preziza home in 1125 Anderson ave. are being held by police "for investigation."

Occurs In Old Church

Police and fire officials were unable to hazard a guess as to the probable nature of the explosives used although a can of what is reported to be ether, and which, it is said, was found "on the Preziza premises" by police following the blast, was taken to the fire station.

The explosion, which awakened residents in their homes in either end of city, occurred in the old church building formerly occupied by the late Frank Nance, who died there several years ago from an assassin's bullet. The structure was owned by Thomas Nance, Frank's brother, who is not a resident of the city.

As a match box could be taken in a giant hand, crushed, and crumpled into an incoherent mass of splinters and then thrown to the winds, the bits alighting where they may, so the one-time old church building, later merchandise center for the Italian residents of the district was torn to pieces by the tremendous power of the explosive and scattered for blocks around the scene of the disaster.

Two brick piers supports for the first floor of the store, a furnace, and sections of brick and cement, cellar walls at the front of the structure and portions of the wreckage and ruined stock were all that was left on the site following the blast.

About 150 Young People In Musical Comedy Offered
By Maccabees.

A musical extravaganza full of surprises and tuneful melody, to say nothing of comedy and beauty, will be seen in the production of "You Hoo," March 19 and 20, at the Grand Theater, under the auspices of the Women of the Maccabees.

The show will be a home to entice fair in which approximately 150 young people will be cast in the many roles in chorus and principal parts.

All the choruses in the show will be typical "folly" ensembles, the elaborate costuming and effects used combining to make startling episodes.

There will be a number of special dances and several who will perform in time Frisco jazz style, with abundant comedy interspersed by a dozen or more comedians.

MACHINERY MOVES FOR RECOVERY OF
NAVAL OIL LANDS

Pomerene And Roberts Co
West To File Government Suits.

SCOPE OF SENATE
PROBE EXTENDED

Gaston Means Will Appear
Before Committee To Testify Tuesday.

Washington, March 10.—The machinery through which the government hopes to recover the naval oil lands that were leased to Harry F. Sinclair and E. L. Doheny began to move today.

Atlee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, the government's special counsel, left Washington for the west where suits will be filed this week to recover the lands and stop Doheny and Sinclair from further extracting oil from Teapot Dome and Elk Hills.

Pomerene and Roberts will arrive in Cheyenne, Wyo., Wednesday. The government's suit will be filed in federal court there either late Wednesday or early Thursday in the case of Teapot Dome. Then they will move on to California and file similar papers in the federal court of the southern district of California in the case of Elk Hills.

With court action imminent, the senate public lands committee prepared today to extend the scope of its inquiry into the oil leases. A heavy schedule was mapped out with every indication that the investigation will continue for weeks.

Jake Hamon, Jr. who has been subpoenaed, notified Senator Walsh, Democrat of Montana, today that he was ready to take the stand at any time. Walsh wired Hamon, however, that the committee would not be prepared to examine him until the latter part of the week.

Means Will Appear
Gaston B. Means, former agent of the department of justice, notified the committee today he would appear tomorrow for examination. Means was subpoenaed last week by Senate or D.H. Democrat of Washington, but reported that he was too ill to appear at that time. Means is under indictment in New York on charges of a conspiracy to bribe Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty.

John F. Major, E. B. McLean's confidential man, has been recalled as the first witness tomorrow. This will probably delay McLean's appearance until Wednesday, Senator Walsh declared.

Once done with McLean investigating the committee plans to lead its inquiry into stock market operations of governmental officials through the examination of books of leading brokerage houses in Washington, New York and Cleveland.

In another of his weekly statements, E. L. Doheny, lessee of Elk Hills, defended the reserve leases today, declaring "Senator Walsh, who knows better, and his fellow howlers, who are too busy windjamming to stop to learn the truth—would make the public believe, if they could, that the secretary of the navy lacked the authority to lease the naval reserves." Doheny also charged "Senator Walsh and his colleagues on the committee" with "playing politics."

"Soul Saving Sheba" Defies Law

MISS RHEBA CRAWFORD

Miss Rheba Crawford, Atlanta, Ga., girl who was known in New York as the "Soul Saving Sheba" when, as captain in the Salvation Army she attracted such throngs in the Gay White Way by her preaching that she was arrested, left the Salvation Army because of the attending publicity. But she seems to be meeting with the same difficulties in Florida she met in the north, for she already has clashed with the St. Petersburg, Fla., fire commission and Ministerial association, having twice defied them when they tried to prevent her holding a revival there in an open tent.

DENBY GIVEN BIG RECEPTION AS HE
QUITS NAVY POST

Secretary Says Goodbye To Attaches; Roosevelt Is Acting Secretary.

Washington, March 1.—Edwin Denby said goodbye to the navy today. Amid the strains of Auld Lang Syne, played by the famous Marine band, all the high ranking officers of the navy, the attaches, clerks and hundreds of civilian employees who have been associated with Denby during the three years that he has directed the American navy, filed through his office this morning to shake his hand and bid him farewell.

The civilian employees presented the secretary with a handsomely engraved memorial, expressing their appreciation of his courtesy and consideration as their chief and wishing him future happiness.

Denby was jovial and smiling throughout the whole ceremony. He told the naval officers as they passed, that, after all, he was glad to get away at last from the storm and stress of official Washington and to retire to private life.

At 10:15 o'clock Gen. John A. Lejeune, commandant of the United States Marine Corps, entered Denby's office and swore the secretary as a major in the Marine Reserve corps. Denby held this rank when he became secretary of the navy. Late this afternoon the job of running the navy department will be turned over formally to Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. the present assistant secretary. Roosevelt will serve as acting secretary of the navy until Denby's successor is named by President Coolidge.

The president today was still trying to make his choice but it was indicated at the White House that a final decision might not be reached today.

Tuesday before Mayor J. B. Schaeffer.

Wack was to have been released on bond Saturday, but relatives refused to sign the bond and Wack was held in jail as he had no ready money to pay his fine. He will be arraigned on two charges, possession of, and impurities to manufacture intoxicating liquor.

What officers assert is one of the most complete stills ever seized in a raid in or near Salem was found at the home south of North Georgetown Saturday morning. The entire outfit will be placed among the exhibits in Mayor Schaeffer's court room.

RESCUE WORKERS
FIND 31 BODIES;
173 MAY BE DEAD

Two Of Bodies Brought Out
Were Headless, Others Badly Scarred.

GAS CONDITIONS
IMPROVED TODAY

Everywhere Is Evidence Of Terrific Force Of The Three Explosions.

Castle Gate, Utah, March 10.—Mine No. 2, of the Utah Fuel Co. here, which was transformed into a shambles by a terrific triple explosion, today continued to give up its dead.

Mine officials announced shortly after 8 o'clock that 13 additional bodies had been removed from the mine this morning, making a total of 31 victims recovered. Of this number a total of 15 had been identified.

Rescue workers reported that gas conditions in the mine were much improved today.

Two of the bodies brought out were headless and a third more ghastly scars and wounds, adding mute evidence to the reports of the rescue teams that the blasts let go with dynamic force.

Encounter Fires
Three temporary morgues have been established and residents of the stricken town are serving on identification committees.

Rescue teams and volunteer workers labored throughout the night and early today had penetrated the entire 2,000 feet of the escape way and more than 3,000 feet into the mine itself via the main portal.

Several small fires were encountered causing much delay to the rescue teams and making their work extremely hazardous. Debris blocked the passage practically every foot of the way.

Everywhere was evidence of the terrific force with which the explosions tore their way through the entries, probably spreading death to all the 173 men said by company officials to have been underground at the time. The absence of bodies in the main passageway offered some vague hope that a few of the men had retreated to distant passages and barricaded themselves.

Expert rescue workers, however, held out little encouragement to the mourners that any man in the mine was alive after the terrific blasts and the penetrating death vapors that followed.

The explosions destroyed concrete bulkheads, crumpled up heavy steel doors and splintered hush timbers, according to the rescue teams, and it was apparent that all the victims whose bodies have thus far been removed died instantly from the force of the blast.

Relief Is Extended

Rescue canny bird in Canon county has been handed up to aid the belated rescue workers in their efforts to reach the imprisoned miners. Men advancing into the entries off the main passageway carried a cage containing a canary, the bird giving first evidence of the presence of poisonous gases.

Thousands of people poured into the sorrowing little mining town over Sunday, making it necessary to establish deadlines, approximately a mile back from the scene of the disaster.

Thousands of people poured into the sorrowing little mining town over Sunday, making it necessary to establish deadlines, approximately a mile back from the scene of the disaster.

Mine company officials this morning declined to make an official statement on the probable cause of the explosion but the general opinion was continued to prevail that it was caused by an accumulation of dust.

Offers of assistance to the stricken town were received from all sections of the state, as well as from points outside.

Gov. Charles R. Maby is on the ground preparing to provide immediate relief if required by the families of the stricken miners.

Headquarters of the American Red Cross at San Francisco has also issued orders to furnish relief through the Utah organization.

Prisoners Given Job
Washing Police Car

Evidence that prisoners often become very tired of the enforced inactivity in city jail was shown Monday morning when Sam Vogelhuber, serving a 2,500-day sentence for non-payment of a $1,500 liquor fine, and Frank Wack, arrested for possession of and manufacture of booze, jumped at the chance to do a little work around the police station.

Chief Thompson put them to work washing the police car, and they did a good job of it.

The Dead Architect

QUITTE property, wide and general tribute is being paid to the memory of Henry Bacon, America's noted architect, recently deceased.

The greatest architect must die, but his work lives on, happily, through centuries, to inspire admiring generations. Angelo is dead, but St.
Peter's still remains one of the wonders of the world. Titian is longer dead, but the Parthenon remains un-rivaled among the works wrought by human hands, worthy to have shrouded the creations of the god-like brain of Phidias.

We, as a nation, strangely persist
in refusal to encourage the rebirth
and development of the incomparable ideal of beauty in art and architecture which made Greece the superement mother of refinement, grace and majesty in a surpassing age. Our homes and business structures, for the most part our public buildings, monuments, and sculptures of our famed and historic leaders and public men, are ugly, drab, at war with the laws of harmony and proportion, unattractive, devoid of beauty.

It is to men like Henry Bacon, Daniel French, St. Gaudens and their kind that we are indebted for occasional recreations of a glory that is dead.
Bacon designed the imposing Lincoln Memorial at Washington, an epic in enduring stone of the highest Hellenic art. He was the author of the notable monument to Carl Schurz,
the Flower Monument at Watertown and many other rare works that long will live to testify to the quality of his genius.

The death of such a man is to be regretted. The world has lost something very worth while, as is the case when a great musician, a great author, inventor or statesman goes into the silence of the unknowable.
But we have always the consolation of that hope which finds renewed inspiration in the works and memories
these truly great leave for the emulation of those who are worthy to follow the shining pathway along which they have passed to approximate realization of the infinite ideals of eternity.

Retribution

THERE is nothing in revenge. There doubtless is rejoicing among their victims, perhaps among the interested public in general, over the conviction of William G. Bennett and Dwight Harrison. Such rejoicing is justified only if it is based on the ground of justice to society and the safeguarding of it through the deterrent lesson of the plight of these two unhappy men. They stand in the shadow of prison, a sad spectacle and a solemn warning. As individuals they are sincerely to be pitied.

How foolish it is to be dishonest!
We do not believe that stolen money ever did a man any good or brought him any happiness. He escapes prison and the world's scorn all too often but fear never leaves him and self-contempt, though well concealed by confident manners and all the trappings wealth provides, is incapable and very hard to bear. And when it is the poor, the trusting, the helpless who have been robbed (however the thief may strive to think of systematic deception and defrauding as legitimate business), how in his moments of introspection he must despise himself and all his stolen goods!

A terrible thing, this conscience which the good and wise God puts into a man! Society must be protected against the presence of those who would prey upon it, potential evil doers must be warned by the punishment of those detected in guilt.
But no human punishment compares in cruel severity with the lashings
of a shamed and flouted conscience.
A man suffering that dreadful penalty in all his waking hours is an object of
for his victims to pity with all their heart. They are infinitely richer in what they owe to him than ever he was in all the wealth he

Hongkong's Swift Growth

Hongkong, when occupied by the British in 1841, was just a barren island, and the part of the peninsula opposite, known as Kowloon, merely sand and marshland. The inhabitants were fishermen or pirates, or both.
Today Hongkong with its thriving city of Victoria, holds a population of about 1,000,000. In 40 years the revenue and expenditures of Hongkong and its suburbs have increased twenty-fold. One of its difficulties is the housing question. Standardized houses with from four to six rooms are being erected at a cost of $4,000 to $5, 500. Hongkong's harbor has been so much improved that it now ranks as one of the greatest ports in the world.

1922, since more than 3,700,000 sheep

the calendar year 1922. The quantity

Control Of Natural Resources Is Sought

Washington, March 10—Drastic governmental control of all natural resources and creation of a federal super power system were provided in identical bills introduced in the senate and house today.

The senate measure was sponsored by Senator Norris, Republican, of Nebraska; the house bill by Representative Keller, Republican, of Minnesota.

COOLIDGE FORCES LINE UP PLEDGES FOR CONVENTION

Campaign Managers Advise President 200 Delegates Are Pledged.

Washington, March 10.—While public attention has been centered upon the thousand and one "sensations" incident to the news of investigation of the campaign managers of Calvin Coolidge have been working with a quiet efficiency that has resulted to date in the acquisition of nearly 200 delegates to the Cleveland convention in advance of the primary battles.

Three months from today the Republicans meet at Cleveland to nominate and the Coolidge managers are so confident as a result of their preliminary work and surveys that they have informed the president it will be "simply a ratification meeting."

Up to today, six states have instructed their delegates for Coolidge—Virginia, Kentucky, Iowa, South Carolina, Louisiana and Minnesota. By the end of this week more states will have joined this list. The Coolidge managers claimed today these are New Hampshire, Kansas, Colorado and Mississippi. The grand total of delegates strength from these ten states is 184.

The president will receive his first primary endorsement tomorrow in New Hampshire. Senator Hiram Johnson of California, the only avowed opponent of Coolidge, has not entered delegates in the state, and consequently the president will have no opposition there. All of the delegates have announced themselves for Coolidge.

There will be no real test of Senator Johnson's strength on March 25, when the Coolidge and Johnson candidates come to grips in South Dakota in a clean cut primary battle.

The next twelve weeks are to be filled with political battles. New Hampshire leads off in the primary list tomorrow, North Dakota follows on March 18, South Dakota on the 25th, and then the candidates swing into a hectic April in which the rival candidates meet in a number of states. Wisconsin votes on April 1, Michigan on April 7, Illinois and Nebraska on the 8th, Oregon on the 18th, Pennsylvania and New Jersey on the 22nd and Ohio and Massachusetts on the 29th.

May will see Maryland, California, Indiana, Montana and West Virginia express preferences.

New York, March 10.—The stock market opened generally steady today, fractional advances being scattered throughout the list. There were a few exceptions, notably Central Leather preferred and East Iron Pipe, which declined one point each to 32 1/2 and 34 1/2, respectively.

Oil was the outstanding feature, Cushing rising 1/4 to 36 1/2, Standard Oil of New Jersey 1/2 to 35 1/2, Marland 3/4 and Pacific 3/4 to 52.

Baldwin shares were steady. Missouri Pacific preferred advancing 1/4 to 38 1/2, Southern Pacific 1/4 to 37 and Rock Island 1/4 to 23 1/2.

The market turned heavy in the forenoon. Initial improvement was not only wiped out, but losses ranged from a fraction to over two points in some of the leading issues.

The petroleum shares stood out prominently in the early dealings, but after the first hour, heaviness set in. California Petroleum lost 1/4 to 24 1/2, Cushing 1/4 to 35 1/2 and Houston Oil 1/4 to 71. GOVERNOR PLEADS FOR DILIGENCE IN LAW ENFORCEMENT

Removal Of Officials Is Threat In The Event Of Laxity.

Columbus, March 10.—By holding a law enforcement agencies directly responsible for dry law conditions in their respective communities, Gov. Donahay, in a proclamation issued today, expressed hope that enforcement of the state's prohibition law will be as vigorous as in the past even though 197 "hard" deputies have been discharged.

Arrests in over 100 cities, 700 villages and the 88 counties of Ohio are left squarely up to local officials who, in event of laxity, will be removed, the governor declared.

Eighteen inspectors only are provided by law for field work of the state prohibition department, Gov. Donahay said they will devote their entire attention to aiding police departments, sheriffs, marshals and other officers engaged in running down liquor law violators.

The state prohibition department expects the fullest cooperation from these agencies, the governor declared. Laxity will result in an inquiry under the Miller dry law and subsequent removal of negligent officials, it found guilty, he stated.

"Whole-hearted assistance," Gov. Donahay declared, "must be given the state inspectors in the largest city and the smallest village, I, therefore, call upon city, village, county and township officials to exercise a possible diligence in the enforcement of prohibition laws."

"Those who do this honestly, courageously and conscientiously will render great public service in this emergency and will make unnecessary any disciplinary action on the part of the state."

WESTERN PIONEER TELLS INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

Frank Rikert, Who Left Illinois for California in Covered Wagon in 1864, Wouldn't Take $100 for Bottle of Taniae.

Frank Rikert, well-known resident of North Sacramento, Cal., who came to the state from Illinois in a covered wagon in 1864 along with other hardy pioneers, recently exhibited a bottle of Taniae, which he had just purchased, to a friend at his home and remarked: "If I thought this was the last bottle of Taniae I would ever be able to buy, I wouldn't take one hundred dollars for it," thus proving the high valuation he placed on the famous treatment.

"I believe Taniae really saved my life when I took it after the fat about a year ago," continued Mr. Rikert, for the attack left me so weak and in weight, and unable to turn over in my bed without assistance. I tell you I thought my time had surely come."

"But, thanks to my wife's insistence, I kept on taking Taniae till I was able to do all my work again and had back all my lost weight, and I've been feeling years younger ever since. I'm always taking my Taniae about Taniae and can't say too much for it."

Taniae is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 10 million bottles sold.

CUBA WILL HONOR WIDOW OF GORGAS

ISLAND REPUBLIC WILL SHOW GRATITUDE FOR THE GREAT WORK OF HER HUSBAND.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—The government of Cuba soon is to entertain as its guest an American woman, Mrs. Marie Doughty Gorgas, widow of Maj. Gen. William Crawford Gorgas, the great sanitarian. Accompanying Mrs. Gorgas to Cuba, also as a guest of the island government, will be Mrs. Katherine Davis Gaillard, widow of the distinguished American engineer who dug the Culebra cut of the Panama canal, a cut which now bears in his honor the name of Gaillard cut.

In the Cuban government there is a cabinet officer known as the chief of the sanitary department. Sanitation in Cuba is a prime requisite. It was Major General Gorgas, better known in the service as Doctor Gorgas, who, while a lieutenant colonel and stationed in Havana years ago, put that city into a condition which made it immune from that plague of its life, yellow fever.

When he was formulating his great work in Cuba General Gorgas was accompanied by his wife. She ran all the risks of the plague which the men of the service ran, and her courage endeared her to the Cubans. Of course, in greatest part, the high honor which has come to this American woman in the form of an invitation to be the guest of a government is in recognition of the services of her husband to the Cuban people, but the honor due to his widow also was a moving factor in the Cuban invitation to her to visit Havana as the honored guest of the Cuban people.

Gorgas' Great Work for Havana.

It was Dr. Walter Reed, acting with other physicians and with American Medical Corps volunteers, who proved that yellow fever was transmitted by the mosquito known as the Stegomyia fasciata, but it was Doctor Gorgas, who formulated and put into operation all the methods and the plans for ridding Havana of yellow fever at a time immediately following the mosquito-transmission discovery. This whole work was that of Doctor Gorgas.

Just after Havana had been cleared of the plague through the skill and high understanding of Doctor Gorgas, he was ordered to Panama to make safe the Canal zone. He put into force the plans, regulations and methods which he had formulated and had used with such signal success in Havana, and added to them new methods as the work suggested them, that Panama might be made the safest place on earth so far as threats of disease were concerned.

Mrs. Marie Doughty Gorgas, the great physician's widow, is writing a life of her husband in connection with Burton J. Hendrick, who edited and connected the letters of Walter Blaes Page, our war-time ambassador to Great Britain.

It is a remarkable thing that yellow fever played a part in the lives of William C. Gorgas and his wife from the time that they first met. The story is a romantic one from every possible viewpoint.

Romance of Yellow Fever.

The two met for the first time in a frontier post when Doctor Gorgas was a young lieutenant in the Medical Corps. Yellow fever struck thearrison. Mrs. Gorgas, then Miss Doughty, contracted the disease, and Doctor Gorgas was her physician. All hope that she might survive was abandoned and her grave was dug, and in the absence of a clergyman, Doctor Gorgas was to read the service. She recovered and then the doctor was taken ill; he narrowly escaped death, but came through, and later they were married.

It is not hard to understand why yellow fever and all the problems connected therewith became of intense interest to this American army surgeon. He was called upon after his Panama success to go to South Africa, and there instituted methods which reduced the pneumonia plague to a low percentage.

Doctor Gorgas was surgeon general of the American army when this country entered into the World war, retiring age came to him before the war was over. At the conclusion of the conflict the British government asked him to go to Africa to solve a plague problem which was affecting one of its great tracts of territory.

Doctor Gorgas went to London, intending from there to start on his mission, but he was taken ill and was removed to a military hospital where he died. Before his death the king went to the hospital and decorated the general with the Order of St. Michael and St. George. After General Gorgas' death he was accorded the honor of a funeral in St. Paul's, all the available troops being turned out to do his memory honor, and later the British government offered a battleship to carry the body to the United States. Mrs. Gorgas, however, preferred that an American vessel should bring home to his native heath the body of her husband.

ception of hell is ten thousand times
worse than the Bible writers pictured it by symbols fire and quashing death. They used these terms because they could find no others that would express their notion of the torments of the condemned of all ages.
"Fire and quashing of teeth are very tame terms when it comes to expressing the torments of a guilty conscience and sins unforgiven.""The very existence of the church with their millions of investments
all over the world is another evidence. These lighthouses of warning would not be possible if the fact were not ever before men, to flee from the wrath to come."

"If men feel that finally all souls

will be restored why go to all this extraneous. Why not shut up the churches and save these millions of dollars? God has implanted this thought within every human heart and because of it men are willing to sacrifice in a material way and even the martyrs die for their own lives rather than let men go to hell without any warning."God's spiritual laws as well as His physical laws are inexorable. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap, is a law as everlasting and exact as the law of gravitation that keeps the planets in their courses."

Beyond God's Help

"If a man persists in sinning against God until he is dead in trespasses and sins, and does not respond to God's call through His Holy Spirit
he is lost. Not because God does not want to save him, but because he has of his own will put himself behind the help of God's Spirit. He has blasphemed against the Holy Spirit of God and is no longer capable of responding to the call of God to a better life.""To say that God is too good to punish the sinner is as foolish and senseless as to say our government is too 'liberty loving and free' to punish any criminals within its borders.""Who would think of executing prisoners and penitentiaries and turning all out threats, murderers, thieves and degenerates loose, and let them go unharmed? But the temperate and virtuous with the debauched and criminals simply because our govern-ment is 'liberty loving'."
"You say there is not the least logic
in such an argument. The perpetuity of this government depends upon the right enforcement of its laws. If this government fails to punish the law-breaker it becomes an equal partner with the guilty and criminal.""What about God's kingdom? Is it not a moral kingdom? Shall not the judge of all the earth do right? If justice demands punishment in secular government, could we expect anything less in Divine government?""If there is no hell for the lost, God is the greatest anarchist of the universe. His kingdom is one of lawlessness and pandemonium. There is no reward for virtue nor punishment for vice. The harlot and murderer are on the same plane as the good.
Can you believe it?"God's Exacting Laws
"Does not God rule the physical universe as manifested in astronomy?
Why then, should he allow his spiritual and moral universe be ruled by anarchistic principles and laws? He does not.""He does not will that any should perish, but, if a man sins away his day of grace and persists in making his own hell God cannot help it. God does not place man in hell. Man of his own will makes his hell and his own assignment to it.""If there is no hell to punish the lost, the cross is a farce and a lie.
How could you account for a God who would let the world such as the building of cathedrals and churchesand homes and hospitals for the unfortunate and sending missionaries to bless the world?""If there is no hell then this Bible is but a collection of lies legends and myths. Can you believe it? More Bibles were sold last year than 20 of the best sellers. Will men read and re-read such lies?""The Bible has inspired the best of art, the best of poetry and the best of everything, and has been handed down to us through the centuries as God's eternal message to mankind, warning him 'to flee from the wrath
to come'."

were broken and dangled in the streets and from homes near the Prezlia store. Telephone and power company crews were at work during the greater part of Sunday repairing the broken lines.So thorough was the effect of the giant force that scales used in the Prezlia store were taken apart as though by a mechanical and parts strewn over the street.

House Blown to Bits

The home of Stephen Cray, adjoining the Prezlia store, in Twelfth st., was reduced to a mass of splinters and the furnishings of the resident totally destroyed.The force of the explosion swept through the first floor of the Cray home and portions of the second floordropped to the ground, it is said.
Asleep in his bed in the front room
on the second floor Johnny Cray, 16 years old, narrowly escaped death
when bed and all abruptly dropped 10 feet or more into the wreckage below and was covered over by the rafters and slats from the roof. His cries were heard shortly afterward by others who had rushed to the scene and he was dragged from the debris by John DeSarrow.Fire followed the explosion. A sheet of flames covered the Cray home and, reaching upward and outward ate into the walls of home of James Gallia, next to Cray's.

Modes Are Flattering
in Hats for Matrons

Three handsome hats, sufficiently different for matronly wearers, reveal the spirited and subtle lines that prove so flattering. They are all of fine millinery. The hat at the top has a frill of lace, a collar of moiré ribbon and an ornament at the side. Below, two wings of silk, braid and burnt goose are fastened on with brilliant pins. Little wings of braid finish the coronet decorated with flowers, on the last hat.

SAYS NICK SIRBU
GOES TO RUMANIA

Man Wanted In Connection
With Conrad Slaying
Flees, Report.

Youngstown, March 10.—Nick Sirbu has joined Vasile Bogdan in Rumania, county detective W. J. Harrison said today.

Both Bogdan and Sirbu were indicted on a charge of second degree murder in connection with the killing of Dr. S. E. Conrad of Salem, while the dry agent was conducting a liquor raid in Watt st. Nov. 19, 1923.

Last week Harrison said Bogdan was in Rumania, but county authorities are unable to send for him because no extradition treaty exists between the United States and Rumania. By the same token, he says Sirbu is safe.

Bogdan fled after being released on $2,000 bail by Municipal Judge Jenkins immediately after the crime. Harrison says Sirbu, also suspected, was never seen after the Conrad killing.

Ironia Sirbu and Peter Sirbu also charged with second degree murder are scheduled to go on trial within the next few weeks. Peter is ill at his home and cannot face trial at the present time.

COURT NEWS

Common Pleas Entries

Only one entry was made on the common pleas court journal by Judge James G. Moore Saturday and this was in the case of the Columbiana County Finance Co., of East Liverpool against William H. and Elizabeth Polimore. The plaintiff in this action was represented by Atty. W. S. Foulke and the court has confirmed an order of sale and distribution in the foreclosure of a chattel mortgage.

The business of this court Monday was confined to the hearing of criminal cases, growing out of indictments returned by the last special session of the grand jury, wherein pleas of not guilty were entered.

Sentence Suspended

Hugh Sharp, who was arrested at Akron late last week and returned to Lisbon on a charge of non-support filed some months ago against him by Alice Metairie, was given a six months suspended sentence to the Canton workhouse Saturday by Probate Judge Lodge Riddle.

Sharp paid the costs in the case and agreed to pay $1 per week to the plaintiff. He was a former resident of East Liverpool and also of Salineville.

Administrator Files Suit

Frank P. Judge, Jr., as administrator, with the will annexed, of the estate of the late John P. McMahon, has filed an action in common pleas court against Mary France and John Malone, wherein it is sought to have the court place a construction upon the instrument.

GIRLS FINISH SEASON UNDEFEATED BUT BOYS LOSE LAST CAGE GAME

Salem High's famous Girls' basketball team completed its season undefeated Saturday night in the high school gym, winning from East Palestine High in smothering fashion 29 to 6. This gave the Salem sextet the unblemished championship for the second year, a record in Columbiana county for undefeated teams.

Following in the second half of the twin bill on the closing cage program of the year in which Salem High teams played, the Salem Boys went down to defeat at the hands of East Palestine's brilliant court squad in a 49-42 battle. It was one of the most sensational games seen here, outside the East Liverpool game.

The Boys' game gave East Palestine second place in the county race, placing next to East Liverpool, the leaders, and Salem has to be content with third.

Ropes around the floor held back the largest crowd of spectators of the season who saw the Girls win the title for sure, and the Boys go down in glorious defeat at the hands of a wonderful team coached by Roy Kneass.

GIRLS' GAME

Allowing the East Palestine team but one basket and four free throws, the Red and Black six established a record on the local floor to shoot at for some time. Miss Williams was the only visitor to cage a basket, and that was no disgrace to her because the Salem Girls allowed their opponent to the ball but a few times.

The famous Salem trio, Misses Williamson, Calkins and Captain Tinsman, performed in unbeatable fashion. Miss Calkins was high point scorer with 12 counters, with Ruby getting three baskets and "Daisy" 11 points. It is a shame that only "Daisy" Williamson will be left for next season.

There was simply nothing to it from the first whistle except Salem, far too fast in every department, except, perhaps, passing the local team took things easier than they might have, and it was only a question of points.

Miss Calkins played her best game of the season. She was there on shooting fouls and baskets also, and held up her position in wonderful fashion.

Of the baskets, only one was sensational. That was made by Captain Ruby herself, from one of those funny angles which she finds best to shoot from.

At the half it was 15-2 Palestine and not made a basket. The few shots were the result of too much fouling by over-anxious Center Titus and Forward Calkins.

But the second half was but a repetition of the first, with Salem slowing down a little perhaps. Fourteen points were made in the last two quarters, while Palestine made four.

Miss Speakman was the only visitor who showed up at all. She was a fine center and kept Miss Titus guessing.

STOY PREPARES TO BATTLE TREMAINE

Crack Bantams Go To It In Zilli's Show Wednesday In Youngstown.

Carl Tremaine, sensational bantam of Jimmy Dunn's Chevrolet stable, will step 12 fast rounds in Raven-wood and torum Youngstown, next Wednesday night, with Rosey Stoy, Lancaster (Pa.) bantam.

Both boys are in their final stages of training for the bout. The last time Stoy was in the Youngstown ring he made a poor showing due to lack of training, but this time he promises to be in the best of shape and is counting on giving Tremaine the fight of his life.

What Rosey wants to do is redeem himself. And he claims that he will try his hardest, because if he does, he will get a crack at Joe Lynch, who rules that division just now. And for that reason Carl is not counting on the fight as won by any means.

At Zilli's boxing shows have attracted a lot of attention in Salem this winter. The majority of his bouts have been good, and he faithfully promises to fans that this show will be the best he has staged this year.

He has carried Harold Webb, Dayton crack welter, to meet Vic Craig in a six-round semi-final at 142

Healthier BABIES Where Rugs are CLEANER

Every baby has to take his tumbles on the floor. But the floor he tumbles on isn't clean till every bit of germ-laden grit is drawn from the very bottom of the nap. To get that out, while the rug's down on your floor—you need the DOUBLE ACTION of the

Premier Duplex

You need the MOTOR-DRIVEN BRUSH that picks off threads and lint, shakes and vibrates the rug, loosens all the deepest trodden-down dirt.

And you need the POWERFUL SUCTION that draws it all up—dust and dirt and lint and grit from the very bottom of the nap. Strong suction that means efficient attachments, too, for every cleaning purpose.

Mt. Nebo Grange Fifty Years Old Celebrates

Only one charter member of the six still living, Horace G. Morlan, participated in the festivities of the day when Mt. Nebo grange celebrated its 50th anniversary Saturday at the hall, Salem-Lisbon rd. Despite the inclemency of the weather, about 175 people attended, mostly members of this grange.

The other charter members are: Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bricker and Mrs. William Carnes, of Salem, Mrs. G. W. Long, of Lisbon and Edward Brinker, who resides in the vicinity of Salem. However, Mr. Morlan is the only one still a member. He was honorary chairman of the committee which arranged the event, and gave a review of the history of the grange.

Mt. Nebo grange was organized on March 9, 1874, at the home of Peter Wall, who resided on a farm north of Lisbon, with 27 charter members. It now has a membership of over 130.

Shortly after its organization, an old dwelling house was fitted up and sessions held in it. The present hall was erected about two years after the grange was organized, and was the first grange hall built in Columbiana county. Mr. Geiger, who lived near Columbiana, then county deputy was the organizer and Peter Wall was the first master.

H. B. Shelton gave reminiscences which were both amusing and noble incidents. He spoke of the sacrifice made by the early members and pointed out that when an organization like this one remains so long in a community it is a benefit, in a business way, and morally, intellectually, and socially.

One incident related was that in the early days a $2 stove was purchased on trial for use in the dwelling.

STRENGTHEN FLEET IN MEDITERRANEAN

London, March 10.—Earl Beatty, first sea lord of the admiralty and admiral of the fleet, has gone to the Mediterranean to supervise the strengthening of the British fleet in those waters, the Daily Express stated today.

The British Mediterranean fleet will be redistributed and reinforced as a political move to offset the maritime influence of the proposed Latin union.

In the future, according to present plans, Great Britain will maintain her strongest fleet in the Mediterranean instead of the North Sea.

Smaller Peach Crop Predicted This Year

"It is not likely that we'll have as large a peach crop this year as last because it rarely follows that a bumper crop is possible two years in succession," declares John P. Neil, superintendent of the county home. "We had an immense crop of peaches last year and had to sell them as low as 25 cents per basket, because we had no means of getting them into the markets, where we could have gotten $1 per basket. We have a truck now and if we have any kind of a crop at all we can dispose of the excess of our needs at a good profit this season," Mr. Neil said.

There are 30 acres in wheat at the county home now, which is less acreage than last year. It is proposed to have a large potato crop this season than formerly at the county home.

Declare Motor Bus Transportation Isn't Wildcat Proposition

Columbus, March 10.—That motor bus transportation in Ohio is no longer a "wildcat proposition, but is on a sound foundation after passing through the experimental state," is the declaration made here today by Judge Ralph W. Sanborn, Cleveland, president of the Ohio Motor Bus Owners association.

Sanborn is in Columbus in connection with the filing of incorporation papers for the Cleveland Peoples Motor Bus company and the presentation to the state utilities commission of applications for certificates to operate the new double-deck type busses in Cleveland.

Judge Sanborn declared the people demand motor bus transportation. In Cleveland both the railway company and the bus company, he said, want to supply the service, raising the question as to who will do so. He maintained the motor bus is more convenient and is safe and is cheaper than the average electric line, or railroad.

the wrong idea about rheumatism for 15 years. I didn't realize that increasing blood-cells had the effect of completely knocking out rheumatic impurities from the system. That is why I began using S. S. S. Say what you will, I never knew such startling results were possible. Well, folks, besides knocking out my rheumatism it gave me back some of the strength I used to have way back! I've got a better color in my face, my appetite is dandy. I don't use my crutches any more. I'm walking around straight-up on two young legs!" S. S. S. makes people talk about themselves the way it builds up their strength. By building blood-cells it builds nerve strength for young folks who ought to have more, and for older people who have little. It stops pimples, boils, blackheads, eczema, chases away blood impurities. You can always rely on it. Start S. S. S. today for that rheumatism. You'll feel the difference shortly. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.
